Your guide to unlocking sustainable wealth

Established in 2011, RichAfrica Consultancy is a specialized strategic advisory firm focused on natural resources law and policy within the oil, gas, mining, and energy sectors. We guide companies towards sustainable wealth creation, operating at the nexus of business, society, and the environment.

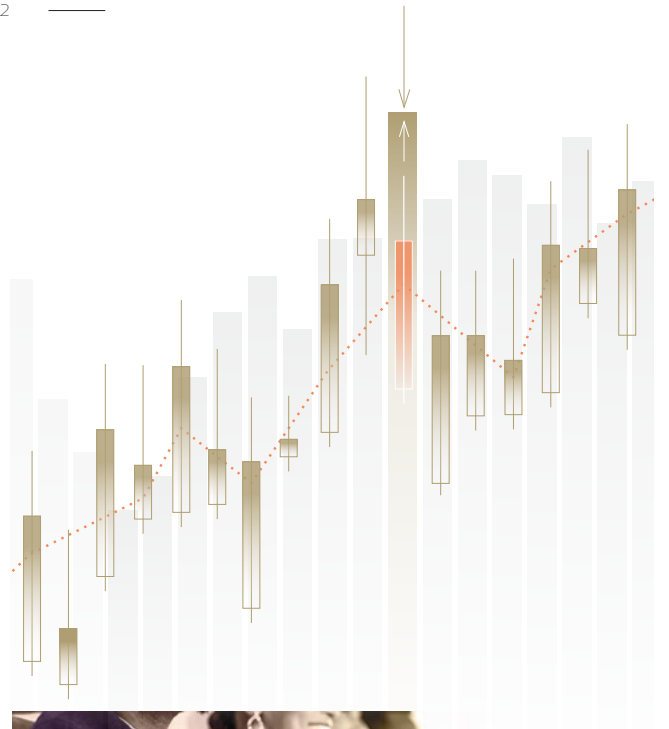

Our dynamic and dedicated team of strategists and experts provide advisory and technical assistance, policy and market research, and facilitate strategic investment linkages that unlock value. Business leaders and investors seek our guidance to align their business strategies with sustainability as well as navigating the complex business landscape.

Whether it's maximizing their investments, identifying opportunities and local partners, providing guidance on impact, or navigating policy matters, our clients trust our team and expertise to effectively fulfill their needs.

We can do the same for you. Get in touch with us.

We leverage innovative strategies and a high-caliber network to unlock business value, transforming priorities into valuable opportunities.

Additionally, we collaborate with our clients to curate influential thought leadership platforms and facilitate investment connections.

The Road to Namibia
International Energy
Conference 2024

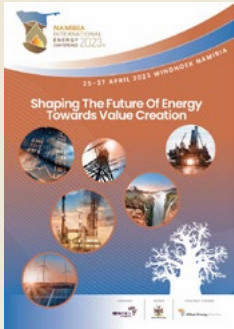

Namibia International Energy Conference

RichAfrica is the proud founder and convener of Namibia's International Energy Conference (NIEC). Originally known as the Namibia International Oil and Gas Conference, the platform was founded a decade ago and has become a reputable platform where industry leaders, business executives, and policy-makers meet to engage in dialogue, idea exchange, create new partnerships, and identify solutions and strategies to foster a prosperous energy industry in Namibia and beyond.

Learn more at www.nieconference.com

Endorsed by the Ministry of Mines and Energy, the conference collaborates with leading, credible partners and sponsors.
